Practical Politics Course to Start at Ryan Aircraft

Ryan Aeronautical has become the first California firm to start an In-plant "Action Course in Practical Politics," is has been announced by Harry Lintz, District Manager of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

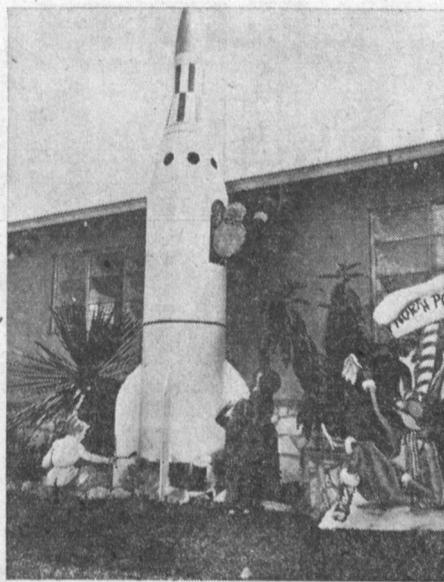

John Wallace, Legislative Committee Chairman for the Torrance Chamber of Commerce said the course would be conducted by William Holmes, who handled the first course locally.

San Diego Open

For the last tournament there were 217 sponsors who paid $100 each, and the $21,700 underwrote nearly half of the budget. Success from this phase practically is assured this year as the 230 mark already has been passed.

For their money, sponsors receive a block of tournament tickets, good for all four days, and participation in the kickoff professional amateur tournament, clubhouse facilities, preferred parking and other privileges.

TORRANCE ARTIST Wayne Harvey, 22318 Avis St., is the most popular man on his block. His outdoor paintings and rock-et depicting yule events drew youngsters Laura and Brett Doherty of 3406 224th St. as interested spectators to his exhibit.
